

Molten Mama Lampwork Beads and Jewelry
Second Annual Open Studio and Holiday Jewelry Sale
To Benefit FUTURE MSAD 3.

(December, 2007, Jackson) Molten Mama Lampwork Beads and Jewelry will be having an open studio and holiday jewelry sale on Saturday, December 8 from 11am to 6pm. Lisa J. Cooley, jewelry artist, will be on hand all day to give demonstrations and discuss the ancient art of glass bead making. Cooley has been working with glass since taking a class in lampwork beadmaking in 2004 at Waterfall Arts. Since then she has developed a unique design style and has been present at many crafts fairs throughout the state. She also serves on the MSAD 3 School Board. This is the second year she has held an open studio/sale day with 20% of proceeds to benefit FUTURE MSAD 3, the group raising funds to enhance the new Mount View K-12 complex. "Playing with hot glass and improving education here in MSAD 3 are the two things that occupy me the most," says Cooley. "I love to use one of my obsessions to benefit the other."

Cooley's home and studio is at 238 Hadley Mill Road in Jackson. Please call 722-3001 or email lisafromjackson@yahoo.com for more information. You can also see her work on her website, <http://moltenmama.etsy.com>.
